Pensacola Symphony Orchestra presents the Wayne Dalton Symphony Showhouse 2007

PENSACOLA, FL— The Pensacola Symphony Orchestra will showcase today's top trends in design through the 2007 Wayne Dalton Symphony Showhouse located at 4120 Menendez. A group of fifteen local professional A.S.I.D. designers and a landscape architect will create a luxurious atmosphere of sophistication, style and grace in this traditional and classic waterfront home on Bayou Texar. You will not want to miss this rare opportunity to explore this grand home and experience brilliant design in this beautiful environment.

The Showhouse opens April 6 with a Premiere Party. The Showhouse will open to the public for tours from April 7 through April 29, 2007. Lunch will be served by Norma's Monday thru Saturday. The Showhouse will also feature a gift shop with furnishings, accessories and other specialty items.

The 2007 Wayne Dalton Symphony Showhouse Designers are Connie Crosby, Allison Smith and Shirley Roe, kitchen, bath and laundry; Aimee Barfield, dining room; Tip McAlpin and John Griffin, living room & veranda; Molly Ann Jackson-Riley, library; Bettina Hoeft, front entry, foyers and stairs; Allan Benton and Nancy Greenfield, master suite; Dana Hicks, upstairs hall bath; Bill Taylor, guest bedroom; Tommi Stockamp, little girl's bedroom ; Betty Gail Peters, gathering room, Shirley Roe, teenage girl's room; Mildred Price, upstairs bath; and Ken Johansen, landscape.

Proceeds benefit the Pensacola Symphony Orchestra. Signature sponsor for the Showhouse is Wayne Dalton. Showhouse sponsors are AmSouth Bank, Hess Financial & Realty Services, Pensacola Home & Garden, Valerie & Ray Russenberger, Energy Services of Pensacola, Hartman Enterprises and R.E. Davis General Contractor, Inc.
