Symphony Showhouse Empty House Tour Gives Glimpse of ‘Before’

PENSACOLA, FL— Visitors can get an advance peek of the Pensacola Symphony Showhouse 2007 before designers and landscapers work their magic. The Empty House tours will be offered Sunday, November 12 and Sunday, November 19 from 1 p.m – 5 p.m.

The East Hill property, located at 4120 Menendez, sits on 160 ft. of waterfront on Bayou Texar. It features a 4,250 square-foot Country French Provincial house with six bedrooms, a boat dock and green house.

Following the Empty House tours, the home will be transformed into a spectacular showcase decorated by local interior designers who will each redesign a room. Landscapers will create a lush garden on the grounds.

Cost to tour the empty house is $5.00 per person and includes light refreshments. Tickets will be available at the door. All proceeds will benefit the Pensacola Symphony Orchestra.

The finished Showhouse officially opens Friday, April 6 with a premiere party. The decorated home and grounds will be open to the public from April 7 – April 29. A gift shop featuring furnishings, accessories and other specialty items will be open during tour hours. Lunch will be served by Mick D’s.

For more information, call the Pensacola Symphony Office 435-2533.
